adi

adi is a knowledge based logistics- and professional services group of companies with global reach, and a focus on Africa, the Middle East and Europe.

Since 1999, adi has applied in-depth logistics expertise in specific markets delivering tailor made client solutions.

We have created long-term and trustful client partnerships through

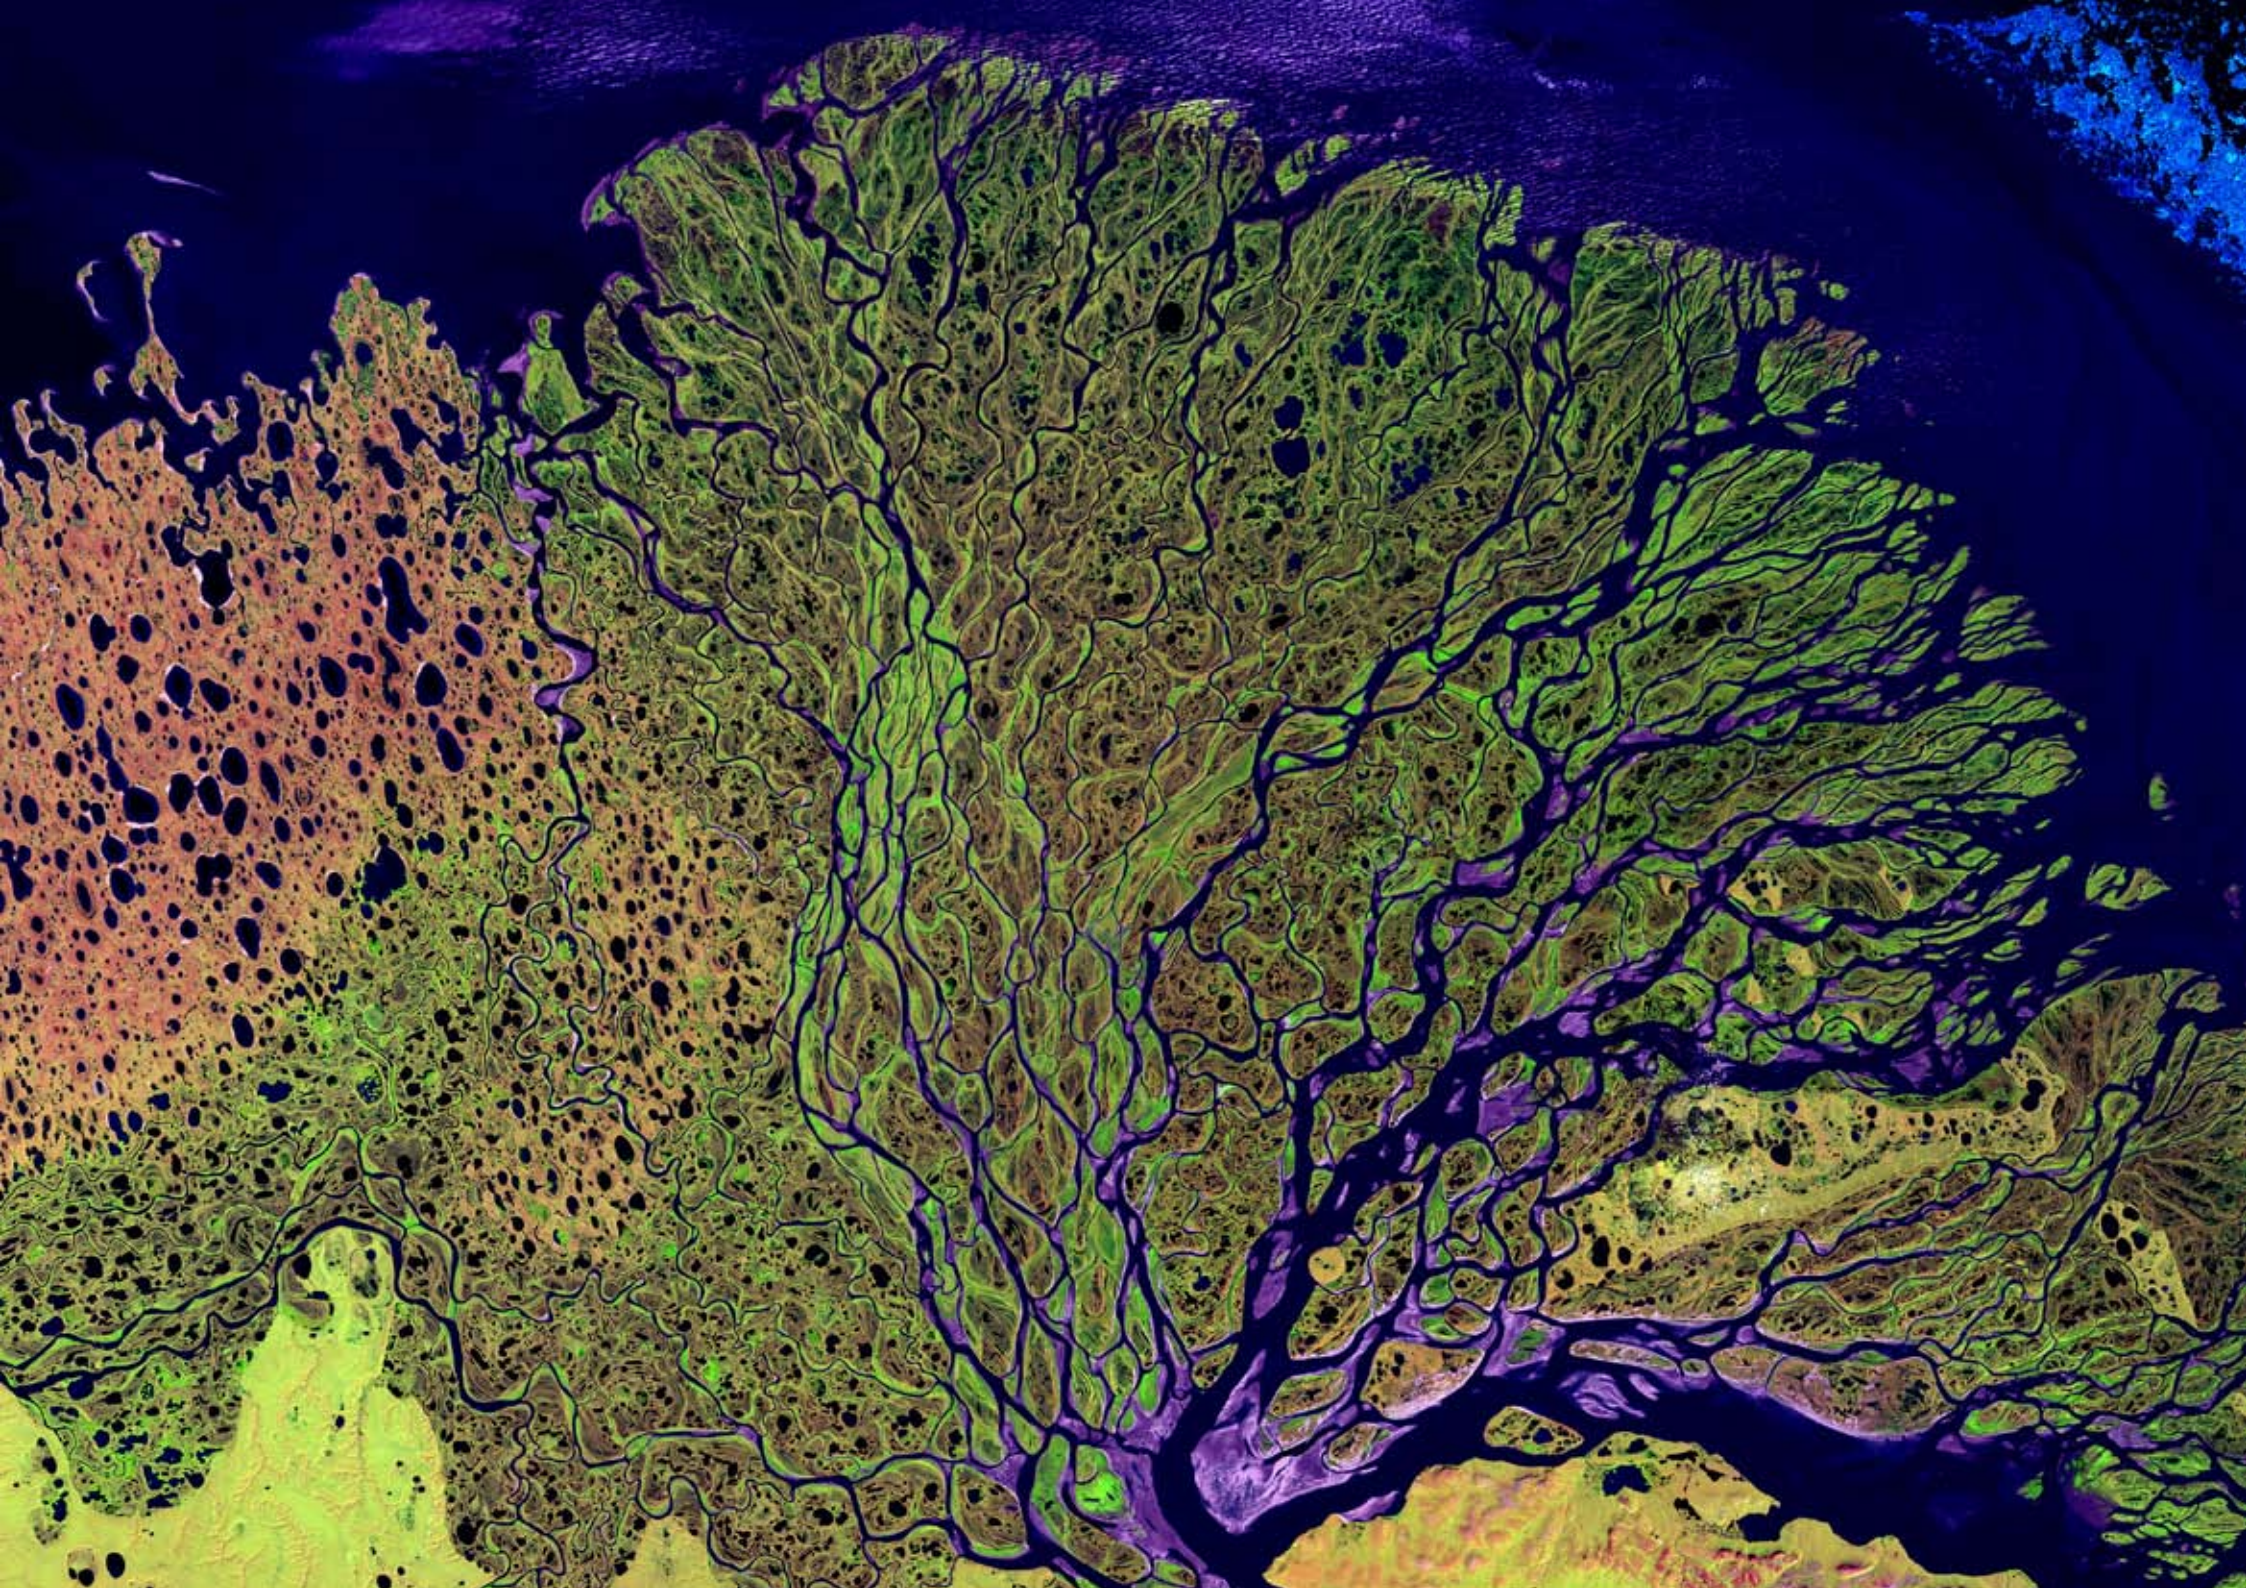

- unique and practical strategies
- local market knowledge and understanding
- cultural awareness and respect

From a global perspective, niches are the most beautiful places on earth...

We focus. While concentrating on specific growth markets and selected logistics activities, we have gained the ability to develop and implement creative and unique logistics solutions with a global impact.

adi logistics solutions reflect market expertise, vision, strategic thinking, creativity, uniqueness, and business sense.

...however, when taking a closer look, challenges emerge...

We understand. We recognise local challenges and consider them opportunities – not obstacles. Our approach allows us to deliver logistics solutions, adapted to the individual competitive environment, with the ability to outperform through evolutionary design.

adi solutions excel because of our local knowledge, cultural awareness, and understanding.

... which require successful partnerships to thrive...

We practice partnership. Founded on our own operational experience we take ownership of what we do. Our commitment spans across consulting engagements, logistics operations and our joint investments with partners.

adi delivers practical solutions that work, resulting in long-term customer and partner relationships based on trust.

... resulting in tailor made solutions.
